University of Economics

International School of Economics

International School of Economics (ISE) of Azerbaijan State University of Economics was created as a part of the University's strategy to intensively internationalize and carry its educating standards towards the ones that exist at Western universities.

Along with delivering all courses in English, ISE is playing a model role within the University as all new educational strategies are first introduced and applied there. ISE has adapted all its syllabi, study materials as well as course delivery techniques to the ones used at first range Western Universities.

ISE carries a strategy of attracting for teaching graduates of Western Universities that also have an extensive field knowledge. Our professors are graduates of such universities as Cambridge University, London School of Economics and Political Science, University of Miami, University of Alberta, Glasgow University, Rouen Business School, Berlin School of Economics and Law, University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign, University of East Anglia, Stockholm School of Economics and others.

Among those that teach at ISE there are bank and insurance companies' vice-CEO's, department heads of Central Bank of Azerbaijan, SOCAR (State Oil Company of Azerbaijan Republic), SOFAZ (State Oil Fund of Azerbaijan), company directors and other practitioners.

ISE graduates having gained a professional level of knowledge of English as well as an education adequate to the latest World requirements gets easily accepted to Western universities for their master degree study. 82% of 2016 graduates 89% of 2017 graduates received job offers or master degree acceptances right after the graduation.

ISE takes an advantage of the University's international agreements in terms of exchange students and visiting professors. More than 30 students every year participate as exchange students at universities of UK, Netherlands, France, Republic of Korea, Hungary and Turkey. ISE hosts at average 4-5 visiting professors each year. Foreign students wishing to study at Azerbaijan State University of Economics in English are placed at ISE which in its turn creates an attractive multicultural environment.
