

ACADEMIC NEWS of
AZERBAIJAN STATE ECONOMIC UNIVERSITY
(quarterly scientific and practical)
Notes for author

1. Name and author(s) of the article, academic degree of author(s), positions, names and surnames, workplaces and electronic mail (e-mail) addresses, work and cell phone numbers should be indicated.

2. The keyword of the article (in Azerbaijani, English, Russian, up to 5 words), summary (in Azerbaijani, English, Russian languages), introduction, main part, conclusion, references, supplements including pictures and tables should consist of not less than 10 pages. E-mail: nazimxx@yahoo.com; n.hajiev@aseu.az.

3. The summary of the article should not exceed 200-250 words, as well indicate the purpose of research, its significance and place at the scientific circle, used or formed methods, answered question and application scope, and should not be in the form of introduction or conclusion.

4. The summary of the article should be in conformity with its content. It should be strictly edited from scientific and grammatical point of view.

5. Scientific innovation, importance of application, economic efficiency, etc. should be clearly indicated at the end of article following the concept of scientific sphere and article.

6. The article should be in A4 format, with 1,5(one point five) interval, Times New Roman 14 font, and spaced from the edges (30mm from the left, 15 mm from the right, 25mm from the top and 20mm from the bottom).

7. The article will be accepted in Azerbaijani, English and in Russian languages.

8. The article should have references to scientific sources. The references at the end of the article, should be listed not in alphabetical order, but in sequence encountered in the text referred to in literature, for example, it should be pointed out as [1] or [1, p.119]. If the same reference is repeated in the text, then it should be referred in the literature with the previous number.

9. Scientific articles of recent 5-10 years, monographs and references should be preferred in the list of literature.

10. Articles should be original and not submitted to other national or international magazines and conferences.

11. After receiving anonymous comments of reviewers, articles will be recommended or submitted for printing by editor or by one member of the editorial board.

12. The acceptance and rejection of the article will be announced after the discussion of the editorial board.